ABOUT US

We reach into every corner of the home.

> Does this genuinely make someone's day easier?

MOSKA Home was founded by a team carrying more than 30 years of experience in the sector. We produce plastic kitchen and living ware for the everyday needs of homes and offices. When we design a product we ask ourselves a single question: does this genuinely make someone's day easier?

Every product intended for food contact is handled with that responsibility, from raw material selection through to mould design. A significant part of our production is carried out together with local manufacturers, keeping our manufacturing capacity in our own country and our supply chain transparent and auditable.

We supply a network reaching from retail chains and supermarkets to wholesalers and export markets, quickly and without interruption. The use of recyclable materials and the reduction of production waste are not a preference for us — they are how we work.
